CIVICS 101

Sponsored by the Multnomah Bar Foundation

Your voice matters. Learn how to use it!

Do you want to be more involved with your city, county and regional government - and your community? CIVICS 101 is for you!

We invite you to participate in our 5-session training series to learn about the structure and operation of various levels of government, engage with elected officials, and advocate for causes you believe in.

In this series we will:

- Learn the basic elements of our local political system
- Have personal conversations with elected officials
- Visit city, county and regional offices
- Learn how to advocate for issues of concern to older adults
